

J.I. CASE BILL GREITEN EAGLE X-COUNTRY INVITATIONAL

Saturday, September 30th, 2017

Site/Admission: Wayne H. Dannehl National 5000 Meter Cross Country Course - University of Wisconsin-Parkside.
Map Quest address: 4000 Petrifying Springs Road, Kenosha, WI 53144
The admission fee for adults is $5.00 (no charge for kids, students and seniors).
It is WIAA and UW-Parkside policy that dogs or drones are not allowed on the meet site on race days.
There will be a concession stand run by UW-Parkside XC on the course throughout the day.

Course: New JR5K Course: The wear and tear caused by the number of high school meets and the number of HS teams practicing on the 5K course has resulted in serious wear problems on the UWPXC course. Therefore UWP devised a new high school 5k course which is named the JR5K. It is basically the 4K course until just before the 2M mark. It then follows the regular 5K course in reverse and finishes like the 4K/8K. The seven regular season high school meets this season, including the D1 Sectional, will be run on the new JR5K course.

Schools: Arrowhead, Brookfield Central (G), Brookfield East, Franklin, Hamilton, Madison West (B), Maine West, Marquette Univ., (B), Muskego, New Berlin Eisenhower, Pewaukee, Racine Case, Racine Horlick, Waukesha West

Meet Dedication: The Eagle Invitational is being renamed today as a tribute to its founder, former Case Cross Country Coach Bill Greiten. Coach Greiten was the first cross country coach at Case and coached cc there from 1969 through 1995. During his coaching career at Case Bill led the Eagles to 16 conference titles and 3 state championships. He is arguably the most successful high school cross country coach in Wisconsin history.
